BEWARE OF SCAMS!

Canadian Bail Money Granny Scam

An increasingly common scam, taking the form of a grandchild calling from jail for bail money, has emerged in an unscrupulous attempt to bilk senior citizens out of their money.

Police Departments have received several reports of people claiming to be a grandchild or someone representing a grandchild in jail asking for money to be sent for bail charges in Canada

To prevent being scammed, always check out the story before you send any money to anyone. For more information on this scam and others www.scambusters.org/grandparents.html

Telemarketing Do Not Disturb

FEATURE of the MONTH

This feature allows you to inform your callers that you do not want to receive telemarketing calls. When active on a line, incoming calls receive an announcement stating that the line does not accept calls from Telemarketers and the caller must press 1 to be connected. If the caller presses 1, they will be connected like normal, any other digit and the call will be terminated.

FREE Internet Classes

Don't forget, La Motte Telephone Company will be hosting FREE Internet training classes March 9, 2010 from 6:00– 8:30.

Email: (6:00- 700 pm): This training covers the following: sending, receiving, replying & forwarding email, working with attachments, using the address book, creating distribution lists, and using a signature file.

Online Shopping (7:00-8:00pm): An overview of online shopping. This class explains different online retailers, comparison shopping, bargain hunting and security.
